

D. AYURVEDA / AYUSH REGULATION — 10 ITEMS

39. Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940

Important regulatory framework for drugs, including Ayurvedic/Siddha/Unani medicines.

40. Drugs and Cosmetics Rules, 1945

Detailed rules supporting the Act.

41. AYUSH Drugs

The regulatory framework includes Ayurvedic, Siddha and Unani drugs.

42. Rule 158-B

Important regulatory provision associated with licensing requirements for Ayurvedic/Siddha/Unani medicines.

43. GMP — Good Manufacturing Practices

Manufacturing quality requirements relevant to regulated medicines.

44. Manufacturing Licence

A regulated medicinal product may require the appropriate manufacturing licence.

45. Product Labelling

Medicinal products must follow applicable labelling requirements.

46. Quality Testing

Testing/analysis requirements are relevant to regulated Ayurvedic medicines.

47. Classical Ayurvedic Medicine

A product based on recognized/classical Ayurvedic references.

48. Proprietary Ayurvedic Medicine

A category requiring different regulatory consideration from a straightforward classical formulation.

Important for your AI:

Product classification must happen before regulatory guidance.

The official Drugs and Cosmetics material specifically addresses licences, testing, packing and labelling for Ayurvedic/Siddha/Unani drugs.