

G. GI / COPYRIGHT / OTHER IP — 6 ITEMS

61. Geographical Indications of Goods Act, 1999

Protects qualifying goods associated with a geographical origin.

62. Geographical Indication — GI

Relevant to products whose quality, reputation or characteristics are essentially linked to geographical origin.

63. Copyright Act, 1957

Protects original forms of expression.

64. Copyright vs Patent

Copyright protects expression; patent protects qualifying inventions.

65. Designs Act, 2000

Protects qualifying visual/design aspects of articles.

Could become relevant to packaging/design of an Ayurvedic product.

66. Trade Secret / Confidential Information

India does not have a single comprehensive standalone Trade Secrets Act equivalent to some jurisdictions; confidential information can instead be protected through contractual and common-law mechanisms.

This is an important sophisticated answer for judges.
